

Tim Scholten

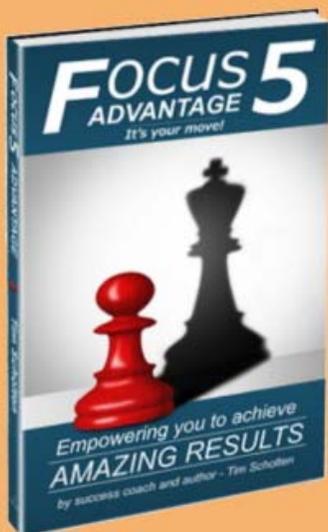

95% of people don't have a SUCCESS PROBLEM . . .

They have a FOCUS PROBLEM.

Starting with just 5 decisions per week most people can turn average into extraordinary.

Tim Scholten is a veteran banking executive, success coach and author of The Focus5 Advantage book and productivity app. He helps people uncover hidden barriers and apply success strategies which generate extraordinary results. For over 30 years, he has used his proven Focus 5 process to help individuals and business owners find their focus, reach their real potential and exceed their goals.

“My proven methods have helped coaching clients achieve 3 to 10 times more with the same or less effort. What you do FIRST every week will make the difference between average and extraordinary success.”
